I. Introduction: The 44th Street lifeguard stand

Hitting the wall

The second wind

We all can experience a second wind—and God wants us to have it

What does hitting the wall look like in my life?

Typical issues

Other issues

II. The second wind seen in Moses (Acts 7:20-37)

The five phases of the life of Moses

Phase 1: A good start: Acts 7:20-22

Someone believed in us

*And Moses was educated in all the learning of the Egyptians and he was a man of power in words and deeds.
—Acts 7:22*

Phase 2: Sin, misunderstanding, guilt, and fear: Acts 7:23-29

Something takes us on a detour

*And he supposed that his brethren understood that God was granting them deliverance through him; but they did not understand... Moses fled and became an alien in the land of Midian.
—Acts 7:25, 29*

Phase 3: On the shelf: Acts 7:29-30

“Same old same old” in the wilderness

*At this remark Moses fled and became an alien in the land of Midian... and after forty years passed...
—Acts 7: 29-30*

Phase 4: The second wind: Acts 7:30-35

We have issues—but God calls us to move on

*...an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in the flame of a burning thorn bush.
“Come now, and I will send you to Egypt.:
—Acts 7: 30, 35*

Phase 5: Service to the glory of God: Acts 7:36-37

Look what happened

*This man led them out, performing wonders and signs in the land of Egypt and in the Red Sea and in the wilderness for forty years.
—Acts 7:36*

III. The second wind in your life: practical points

1. The second wind can occur in the midst of ordinary, day-to-day living

Man does the ordinary—God does the extraordinary

2. The second wind can occur when we make ourselves available

We need to be open to what God wants us to do

3. The second wind is available to those who understand who is in control

God is willing to use us wherever we are
